

The future of work is here. Success in this new world requires new mindsets, new skills and asking different questions. In this session, Kassi poses five key questions to self- assess your organization's current state while offering insights on emerging trends, stories of companies getting it right, and giving you ideas for your own organization. Harness the power of opportunity, move forward with confidence, and build a place where people want to work.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- Recognize the fundamental shifts of workplace models and employee mindsets
- Identify what must evolve to ensure organizational success
- Drive conversations within your organization about your readiness for the future
- Leverage your attractiveness as an employer to create a differentiating EVP

DELIVERY CUSTOMIZATION

- Best as a 2-4 hour workshop
- Available as a keynote
- In-person or virtual delivery

Key Topics

- · What employees need to succeed
- · Attracting talent with your EVP
- Moving from general "best practices" to individualized leadership of your employees
- New skills required to lead teams into the future
- Impacts to inclusion & belonging
- Including your teams in creating their ideal workplace
- Pondering the 3 P's (philosophies, policies, practices) in the future of work